

September 2007

PURE KITCHENS SPONSORS 'TASTE OF NORMANDY' EVENT

Pure Kitchens – the leading independent kitchen retailer – is the proud sponsor of this year's 'Taste of Normandy'.

Andrew Woodbridge, Managing Director of Pure Kitchens comments: 'We're delighted to be aligning our company with such a prestigious foodie event. It's only natural that gourmet French cuisine should be prepared in a complementary chic environment, and our kitchens offer just that with the very best in both contemporary and classic designs.'

Continues Andrew 'Our state of the art kitchens focus on the functional, aesthetic and social needs of the consumer, so that we can provide a bespoke solution that's tailored to their individual lifestyles and personalities. Our latest kitchens look bold and impressive, creating an air of modernity that sits perfectly within any contemporary home. Alternatively our country kitchens capture the aesthetics of a truly rustic and classic design with unique charm and character creating a warm and welcoming environment.'

With over 300 colourways to choose from in matt, high gloss or wood finishes, and a range of premium branded accessories & appliances from leading manufacturers including Smeg, Siemens and Miele, Pure Kitchens make it simple for consumers to create their dream kitchen. What's more, complete customer satisfaction is guaranteed thanks to a comprehensive full service solution.

Pure Kitchens is the co-sponsor of the event alongside Brittany Ferries.

Notes to editors:

'Taste of Normandy' is being held at the French Ambassadors residence in Notting Hill on 3rd October. The event hosted by Alan Coxon will feature five chefs from top restaurants in Normandy.

For further information please contact:

Jon Coulson
Blue Crush Communications
t 07889 996407
info.crush@btconnect.com

